

PPH pressed & planed sheet / natural / beige (RAL 7032)

PPH pressed and planed is supplied as standard with a planed surface to both sides in natural and beige. With improved stability over extruded due to its manufacturing process, this product is highly recommended for large technical parts.

We also offer a range of sheets specific to the cutting industry in a range of colours that denote their shore hardness. Please contact our sales office for further details.
